A Long Walk to Water begins as two stories, told in alternating sections, about two eleven-year-olds in Sudan, a girl in 2008 and a boy in 1985. The girl, Nya, is fetching water from a pond that is two hours’ walk from her home: she makes two trips to the pond every day. The boy, Salva, becomes one of the "lost boys" of Sudan, refugees who cover the African continent on foot as they search for their families and for a safe place to stay. Enduring every hardship from loneliness to attack by armed rebels to contact with killer lions and crocodiles, Salva is a survivor, and his story goes on to intersect with Nya’s in an astonishing and moving way.

Realidades 4 Digital Edition ©2014 provides standards-based instruction that seamlessly integrates vocabulary, grammar, communication, culture, and digital learning for upper level Spanish. This text features 12 thematic chapters with a focus on the integration of language and contemporary culture, a review and expansion of vocabulary and grammar, and extensive practice in the three modes of communication (interpretive, interpersonal, and presentational). The cultural themes allow for a deeper exploration of cultural products, practices, perspectives, and comparisons. Realidades 4 can be used effectively as the fourth year program in an articulated sequence of instruction, as a pre-AP text to Abriendo paso ©2014, or as the core text in an AP course. The program resources are available in print, on DVD-ROM, or online. The Digital Courseware, realidades.com, offers the newest and most powerful online learning system available in any high school Spanish program.

How the Garcia Girls Lost Their Accents-Julia Alvarez 2010-01-12 "A joy to read." -- The Cleveland Plain Dealer

Acclaimed writer Julia Alvarez’s beloved first novel gives voice to four sisters as they grow up in two cultures. The García sisters--Carla, Sandra, Yolanda, and Sofía--and their family must flee their home in the Dominican Republic after their father’s role in an attempt to overthrow brutal dictator Rafael Trujillo is discovered. They arrive in New York City in 1960 to a life far removed from their existence in the Caribbean. In the wondrous but not always welcoming U.S.A., their parents try to hold on to their old ways as the girls try find new lives: by straightening their hair and wearing American fashions, and by forgetting their Spanish. For them, it is at once liberating and excruciating to be caught between the old world and the new. Here they tell their stories about being at home--and not at home--in America.
