Dipinti del barocco romano da Palazzo Chigi in Ariccia AA. V. 2012-09-11T00:00:00+02:00 The exhibition, held in the heart of the Chigi residence, offers a unique opportunity to penetrate the richness of the artistic production of the Baroque period, characterized by the intense works of masters such as Gian Lorenzo Bernini, Giovanni Francesco Penni, and Andrea Sacchi. The Chigi family, through its capital and cultural resources, was able to patronize and promote the works of the greatest artists of the time, thus leaving behind an artistic legacy that is still admired today. The exhibition, which includes around 400 paintings and sculptures, provides a comprehensive overview of the Baroque period, highlighting the diversity and the wealth of the artistic expressions of the time.
